

Central Payments

Due to the overwhelming success of our program alumni awaiting market launch, Falls Fintech made the strategic decision to pause cohorts in 2022. The team was focused on product build to help serve a much larger number of fintech start-ups in the future.

Stay tuned for exciting announcements as we get closer!

◀ The entire Central Payments team had the opportunity to gather in Sioux Falls, SD to celebrate their big win of 2022—a $30 million growth equity raise. Employees traveled from across the country!

In August of 2022, Central Payments, architect of the award-winning Open*CP Fintech API Marketplace, announced that it completed a $30 million growth equity raise.

Castle Creek Capital led the round with additional investment from Launchpad Capital.

The transaction spun the banking-as-a-service leader out from Central Bank of Kansas City and further accelerated its rapid growth trajectory.
